4th April, 2016

Dear Parents,

Anzac Day March
South Arm RSL
&
6am Dawn Service
Rosny Memorial

On Monday 25th April students from John Paul II Catholic School are invited to join in a local Anzac Service. There will be school representatives laying a wreath at the 6.00am Rosny Dawn Service and the 11am South Arm service.

If you and your child would like to participate in the dawn service we will contact you with the arrangements.

Students are invited to walk in the South Arm RSL ANZAC Day march and then join in the Service of Remembrance, to be held at the South Arm Cenotaph beginning at 11.00am.

If your child would like to join in the walk, please gather by 10.20am opposite the 4 Acres café and the South Arm Community Pharmacy ready to walk to the Cenotaph. Our school will be laying a wreath during the service and at the completion of the service a free sausage sizzle will be provided for the children. If your child is able to participate, please fill in the form below and return to school by Friday 8th April. Could children please be dressed in their school uniform to attend these events.

Yours Sincerely,

Fran Bearman
Principal
